Terms of Service

Cryptoalerts ("the Service") is a market data service developed and distributed by Cembranaut GmbH ("we" or "us"). The Service is provided without warranty on an "as is" and "as available" basis. Any part of the Service may be changed or removed at any time without warning. By using or accessing the Service, you signify that you have read and agreed to this Terms of Service document.

Data Integrity

We report market information that we derive directly from the APIs (Application Programming Interfaces) provided by an intermediary provider. We do not manipulate the data except to abridge and/or summarize series of similar data points. We cannot guarantee the accuracy and correctness of data displayed on our site. Further, there may be times where data is not up-to-date given technical issues beyond our control or other reasons. Please do not make trading decisions solely based on data displayed on Cryptoalerts. Always check with your exchange of choice directly.

Risk Warning

Trading and investing in digital assets is highly volatile and comes with many risks. The analysis and stats provided by Cryptoalerts are for educational & informational purposes only and should not be considered investment advice. Statements and financial information on Cryptoalerts should not be construed as an endorsement or recommendation to buy, sell or hold. Please do your own research on all of your investments carefully. Past performance is not necessarily indicative of future results.

Account

Cryptoalerts can be accessed and used anonymously (without being logged into a Cryptoalerts Account). Accessing the Service when logged into an Account allows one to access personalized features such as saving screener presets or creating alerts. We offer a premium account tier with added functionality such as additional screener presets, more saving options and addition alert types. Cryptoalerts reserves the right to amend the features included with the premium account type at any given time without further notice.

Refunds

The Service is billed for in advance on a monthly basis and is non-refundable under normal conditions. Payments may be made by credit card only. The Service may be refunded in certain circumstances. Please email info@cryptoalerts.com for further information.

Security

We do our best to ensure that our software is secure, however we cannot guarantee that unauthorized third parties will never be able to defeat our security measures. By creating a Cryptoalerts Account you are providing any personal information at your own risk and you are agreeing to relieve us from any and all liability arising in the event that your personal information on our system is accessed by unauthorized third parties.
